

Meeting of Orchid Conservation International at Writhlington School on Saturday June 27th

The day will start from 12.00 midday and include:

- “Have a go at sowing orchid seeds” sessions from midday
- Tours of the greenhouses and the school micro-propagation laboratory
- A free orchid seedling kit (usually £5) with each entrance fee
- 20% off on all orchids on sale from the greenhouse
- Stall supporting Orchid Conservation International
- At 2pm, a lecture given by Simon Pugh-Jones and the students of the Writhlington School Orchid Project about their work.

For more information or to book your place
please contact Simon Pugh-Jones:

e-mail: spughjones@tiscali.co.uk
telephone 01761 433581

School address: Writhlington School, Radstock, BA3 3NQ

Members of the public very welcome

Price £10 or free to OCI members (or those who join on the day)

See <http://wsbeorchids.org.uk/category/conserve/> for further details